Disclaimers

A photo static, facsimile, or other electronic copy of this authorization shall be valid as the original. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or a part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance programs, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580. To help the Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. This means that when you apply for credit or open an account with the COMPANY we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, social security number, and other information that will allow the COMPANY to identify you. We may also require that you furnish us with a copy of your Driver's License or other identifying documents. Consult your attorney or financial advisor for specific legal and/or tax advice before entering into any type of financing arrangement, and for information on tax deduction eligibility and procedures. The company and the equipment vendor and/or broker you select are separate companies, and have no authority to bind one another to financial or other contractual obligations.
